HELP WANTED-FEMALE

Miss Gregory's TALKS TO YOUNG WOMEN. NUMBER FIVE.

There is a woeful lack of knowledge exhibited by the general public concerning the work-ings of a large telephone exchange; they are prone to judge from what they have seen at a busy public one in a large hotel. They imagine that in a big "Central" the noise and confusion must be nerve racking in the extreme. If this were so the system would not last a week. A cooler, caimer body of cheerful bright young women could not be found anywhere; no confusion of any kind exists; such a condition would be fatal to the service. On the contrary everyone per-forms her alloted task with clock-like precision. Each oper-ator before taking a position at a central board has had her train-ing in the pleasant quiet department conducted by the company; here she handles no public calls, but when she graduates, which is in a surprisingly short time, she fits into her place in "Central" as if she had worked at it all her life. It is not all work by any manner It is not all work by any manner of means, you cannot put a hundred or two young people together, sharing the same rest rooms, libraries and dining rooms without life-long friendships being formed. No girl can be lonely amid such surroundings. The position of an operator in this telephone company's exchanges, taken all in all, is an ideal occupation. The pay is good, hourseasy and working condition of the very highest excellence.

Call and let's talk it over. MISS GREGORY, ROOM 308, C. & P. TELEPHONE CO., Homer Bldg. 13th & F Sts. N.W.
